Shared Journeys: Making a Living

Tuesday, March 8, 6-8 PM

103 Orchard Street, New York, NY 10002

Meet us at the Museum at 5:45pm.

*Subway: B or D trains to Grand Street; F to Delancey Street; J/M/Z to Essex Street
OR meet us at 5 pm at ESU to travel together. Metrocards will be provided.*

We will visit the 1897 home of the Levine family, who ran a small garment factory in their home. Conditions in factories such as this sparked a national debate about what constitutes acceptable working conditions. Participants will discuss and learn about how immigrants organized for better working conditions in the past, the challenges of making a living, and working conditions today.

Please call or email Diandra Kalish or Tanzilya Oren to reserve a ticket.
