Celebrate 400 years of Shakespeare legacy!

Tony winning director Daniel Sullivan (Proof, Cymbeline) returns to Shakespeare in the Park with one of the Bard's most rarely produced plays, Troilus and Cressida. Both warriors and lovers play hard in this surprisingly modern epic about the hot blood, hot thoughts, and hot deeds of the ancient Greeks. In the 7th year of the Trojan War, Troilus, a young prince, pines for the affections of Cressida, a bright young woman who knows how to play it cool. Meanwhile, the heroes of the Iliad—Ajax, Ulysses, Achilles, and the kings they serve—debate whether to return the dangerously beautiful captive Helen or continue to fight. Nations and lovers alike do battle in this funny, piercing drama about romance and revenge in a world at war.

The number of tickets is limited! No tickets for friends or family available, sorry!
